Re: Eliseo DeJesus v. Astrue
08 Civ. 3428(DAB)(DCF)

Dear Judge Freeman:

This Office represents the Commissioner of Social Security, defendant in the above-referenced action.

After one extension was granted due to the delay in the preparation of the administrative record, the answer is now due on July 7, 2008. This Office has written to the plaintiff pro se and advised him that the Commissioner wanted to remand this case for further proceedings, and included a proposed stipulation to that effect. To allow plaintiff sufficient time to consider the Commissioner's offer, I respectfully request that defendant's time to answer or move with respect to the complaint be extended by thirty days, to August 11, 2008. By that date, defendant will either submit a fully executed stipulation of remand or move for a remand. Plaintiff consents to this request.

SO ORDERED: DATE: 7/8/08.....Debra Freeman.....
DEBRA FREEMAN
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

MICHAEL J. GARCIA
United States Attorney
